REID RECEPTION.

Brilliant Gathering in Honor of Lately Married Couple.

A brilliant reception and card party was given by Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Reid last Tuesday evening at their home on Reed's Island in honor of C. A. Stobie and Mrs. E. H. Reid whose engagement was announced last week. The guests present numbered between eighty and one hundred. Mrs. Reid was a most charming hostess. The evening was devoted to six handed euchree, ten tables being occupied by the players. The game lasted over two hours and at the end the victorious lady was found to be Miss Neumann. She was rewarded with a beautiful pin bearing the Hawaiian coat of arms. Mr. L. Turner, among the gentlemen had the highest number and was rewarded with a handsome morocco card case and a pack of cards. There was a more spirited competition as to who should have the consolation prize. A half dozen had to cast lots to see which one was entitled to the reward. The drawing of straws showed Mrs. Shaw winner her prize was a volume of poems. Refreshments consisting of salads, cake, coffee and punch were served.

PUBLIC WORKS PROGRESS.

Good Work Has Been Done All Along the Line.

G. H. Gere, representing the Department of Public Works, came in from the Hamakua District Monday. He reports that the Hakalau gulch improvements will be completed next week. The bridges on the main road in Hamakua are all finished except two and the road at these points is passable. Mr. Gere has prepared plans and estimates for the erection of stone abutments for thirteen different bridges recently built.

Mr. Gere says that he has not yet heard from the opening of bids for macadamizing Waianuene street which occurred June 9. When this street is macadamized, the center will be 16 inches above the curbing on either side and with the new storm sewers and gutters will defy any rain storm that may descend.

The Kinan wharf extension has been completed and the brace piles have proved all that was expected of them. If a ship collides with the wharf now, the damage will be to the ship not the wharf.

Judge Little will open the July term of the Circuit Court at Honokaa promptly at 10 o'clock, a. m., Wednesday, July 2. Every attorney of record in any cause to be disposed of must be in attendance at that day and hour and until their business is disposed of.

A gang of men has commenced the work of improving Waianuene street. New stone gutters will be laid on each side throughout the entire length of the street. There has been new curbing put in place fronting the school house above School street.

The committee on parade for the Fourth of July have extended an invitation to all soldiers in the Spanish American war to take part in the marching. There are a number of these patriots in the city and island and they have properly a place of honor in the procession.

All soldiers who took part in the Spanish-American war are requested to meet at the office of Alex. Raymond on Bridge street, Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. to arrange for participation in the Fourth of July parade. James Morris will represent the Executive Committee.

J. W. Mason, Manager of the Hilo Mercantile Co., was the host at four dinners at the Hilo Hotel during the past week. The private dining room at the hotel was prettily decorated for the occasions. The dinners were given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hays of San Francisco.

Wm. M. McQuaid, chemist for the Olua mill, has made an analysis of Whitney bamboo cane, grown by Mr. Hill at 22 miles, which showed unusually excellent results. The sample was one year old ratoon and yielded 18.29; sucrose 16.83; purity, 92.85; glucose, .277; glucose ratio, 1.74.

H. L. Williams, Manager of the Puna Mineral Water Company arrived by the Kinan this week from a business trip to Honolulu. Mr. Williams has completed arrangements to install a complete bottling plant at the springs. The buildings have already been erected and the plant will be in operation in a very short time.

J. W. Springston, the Honolulu contractor who secured the job of laying the new pipe lines for the improved Hilo water system is making dirt fly on Front and Waianuene streets. He has a big gang of men at work and early next week will have the eight and ten inch mains in place. The work will then be continued on side streets.

Dr. Sloggett, president of the Board of Health, arrived by the Kinan Wednesday on a personal business trip. This is said to be the first time in history when a president of the Board visited Hilo during his official incumbency. While not here in his official capacity Dr. Sloggett has taken the pains to go over the district with Health Officer Dr. Reid and made a careful inspection. He found little if anything in the city or district for criticism.

HILO'S BALL BOYS.

Word From the Sluggers Who Are Now on Maui.

Wailuku, Maui, June 10th, 1902. ED. TRIBUNE:—After a beautiful trip, the Hilo boys arrived in Wailuku last Saturday morning at 2 a. m. Easton and Ludloff stay at Schrader's Hotel, E. M. Brown at Capt. Wm. Cornwell's, Waikapu Ranch, and the rest of the boys at a cottage near the Maui Hotel. Hilo's ball players are treated nicely and are in the best of health and spirits. The Maui Athletic Association has erected a new grand stand and laid out a new diamond well's Park, especially for the game tomorrow. The grounds are very fast and are the best in the islands. The game will be a hard one and no one knows who will win. Much money will change hands as many Maui people are backing the Hiloites while the Maui players have money galore behind them. Judge Kahua gives the Hilo boys a luncheon today noon at the Maui Hotel. Tomorrow night after the game, Maui will give the Hilo ball tossers a nicely arranged luau. Easton, Rowland and Ragsdale go to Honolulu Thursday, E. M. Brown goes to Kula and Haleakala while the other boys remain in Wailuku. Hilo has no substitutes, as for some unknown reason, our men failed to get aboard the Kinan. Wednesday night, June 25th, Hilo will see her boys at home again win or lose. The following is the batting order of the two teams with their positions given:

COAL SHIP BURNS.

Captain and Crew Now on Kanai Made 800 Miles in Open Boat.

The new 4-masted British steel ship Fannie Kerr, Captain Gibbons, bound for San Francisco from Newcastle, Australia, with 3700 tons of "northern extended" coal, was abandoned in flames by her officers and crew on May 29, about eight hundred miles to the northwest of the Island of Kauai, in latitude 26.15 N., longitude 168.30 W., her cargo having been afire probably for several weeks.

Her decks were blown up shortly after three boats, bearing the crew, left the side of the burning vessel.

"For eight days the captain and about half the crew were in this open boat. They made for Kauai. They were in the trade belt and came along at the good rate of about one hundred miles a day with a sail set. They had plenty of provisions and fresh water in the boat and had not suffered particularly except from the heat. The captain was anxious concerning the other two boats.

After eight days in an open boat, Captain Gibbons, his son, the second mate and fourteen members of the crew landed at Makaweli, Kauai, last Friday morning.

Volcano This Week.

The Volcano has claimed a large number of visitors this week. It has done nothing of special dramatic interest except to keep on flashing fire and emit huge volumes of smoke. The latest reports are that the liquid lava is rising still higher in the crater.

The steam cracks over the whole area of the large crater and are emitting their regular quota of vapor and the hot cracks give forth increased eddies of heat. The caves are hotter than they have been since the last eruption and taken altogether the volcano is an attraction well worth the time and trouble of a journey to it. The Waldron's at the Volcano House do everything in their power to make the guests of the house comfortable. The guides are having their hands full in taking care of the numerous visitors.

Roderick Dhu Sails.

The Roderick Dhu, Captain Johnson sailed Tuesday morning for San Francisco with the largest list of passengers for some time. Those leaving were W. A. Ray, wife and children; C. H. Ray and wife, Mrs. Albert Horner and three children, Miss Winter, Mrs. G. A. Porter, Jas. G. Mero, Mrs. Von Arnswaldt and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. F. Irwin, Miss A. Aitken and Jack Guard. The Roderick also carried sugar as follows: Hilo Sugar Co. 6288 bags; Hakalau 6680; Pepeecko 25272.

Kinau Passenger List.

The following passengers arrived by the Kinan this week: J. A. Scott, D. R. Helen, Dr. Sloggett, Dr. W. F. Porter, W. H. Timert, T. Taronzine, L. A. Preston, D. Conway, Miss M. B. Combs, C. E. Dakin, T. G. Murray, Geo. Wilson, Frank Davey, L. J. Phillips, W. H. Lambert and wife, Mrs. J. F. Humburg, Mrs. Humburg, H. L. Williams, R. L. Scott, J. M. Coulson, Mrs. Alexander Russell, Mrs. L. C. Drexler, L. C. How, W. H. Hogghead, R. E. Allardye, T. L. Kell, G. Miss C. F. Plum, T. B. Plum and J. Jaskulik.

Political Meeting.

The Hilo precinct Republican Club will meet this evening at Fireman's Hall, at 7:30, to make nominations of officers to be elected at a subsequent meeting.

The insurance ratings on all properties on this island, except that which is under control of sugar plantation companies. This was decided upon at a conference held with the local board last Monday evening by A. R. Gurrey, secretary of the Board of Underwriters. The local board consists of Messrs. E. E. Richards, Chairman; A. E. Sutton and W. H. Little.

WILL BE BIG FOURTH.

Plans for Hilo Celebration are Moving Forward.

The Parade Committee on Fourth of July preparations is doing excellent work. Mr. A. Richley, chairman, has passed up all matters of private business until after the Fourth of July and will devote his whole time to the supervision of parade arrangements and the preparation of floats. The organization for the grandest street parade ever seen in Hilo is already about complete. There will be room enough for all and a place for everyone. The marching columns will be divided into three main divisions as follows:

The procession will be headed by a platoon of police in command of Captain H. T. Lake. Then follow the Hilo band, J. Carvalho, leader; Grand Marshal, A. Richley and uniformed aides, all mounted. The aides will be J. U. Smith, Dr. R. H. Reid, T. C. Ridgway, Messrs. Metcalf and English.

The First Division will be in command of W. A. McKenny, who will have two aides dressed in red, white and blue. Company D, H. N. G., in command of Captain Fetter will follow. In this division the three magnificent floats "The Goddess of Liberty," "The States" and "Uncle Sam." Who shall ride on the first float as goddess of the day will be determined by the ballot which is being conducted at the Owl Drug Store. The "States" will be a magnificent display of color and bright faces. Fifty-five little girls waving flags will ride on this chariot, which with the other two is being made by Mr. Richley. Following these floats will come the members of the Grand Army in carriages.

The Second Division will be in command of C. N. Prouty, with two aides. This division will be made up of business men's floats. It will make an interesting cavalcade, as nearly every business house in town has consented to be represented.

The Third Division will be in command of L. M. Whitehouse and two aides. This section will produce fun for the multitudes. It has been named the "Antic Horribles."

The Third Division will form on church street, right resting at Front street, left, up church street.

The line of march will be from the post office along Front street to Waiakea bridge and counter march to Waianuene street; along Waianuene street to Pitman where the procession will disperse. The time of marching will not be more than 40 minutes.

A Judges stand will be erected on Front street at the Davies warehouse where the following Judges will review the procession and award prizes: Hon. Gilbert F. Little, J. T. Moir, W. H. Shipman, C. A. Stobie, E. N. Holmes and C. C. Kennedy.

The prizes offered are $10 for the best business float; $5 for the best comic character, and $5 for the best decorated private carriage.

The Literary exercises will be held in a pavilion on the Hilo lawn and will be in keeping with the general scale of preparations.

In the afternoon of the fourth the races and athletic sports at Hoolulu Park will begin. The outlook for the best race meet yet held in Hilo is good, and the general variety of field sports will be an attraction for all classes.

Successful Concert.

The Sunday School benefit concert at Hilo Church Wednesday night was a complete success in every respect. The financial results were $115, and the artistic success of the concert was unqualified. The program was as follows:

PART I
Organ Prelude.....Mrs. J. A. Cruzan
"Rose of Moorland"—Schubert.....H. B. S. Glee Club
"Ka Nuku o ka Manu"—Glee Club
"All Things Are Beautiful"—Girls Quartet

Hawaii Ponoi.

The "Goddess" Ballot.

The promoters of the Hilo Fourth of July celebration have hit upon a novel and successful method of arousing interest in the day and raising money to build floats. A Hilo lady, to take the part of "Goddess of Liberty" was wanted and it was decided to select her by ballot. The daily bulletins on the board in front of the Owl Drug Store are read with increasing interest by the friends of the various candidates. The fund already realized is a goodly sum and before the ballots close on the 28th the rivalry of the many supporters of each candidate promises to become reckless.

Whooping Cough.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. STRICKFADEN, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash., U. S. A. For sale by the Hilo Drug Co.
